

HISTORIC PRESERVATION COMMISSION

MINUTES

OCTOBER 11, 2012

1. Meeting called to order
2. Mary Tanner, Janet Nichols in place of Jackie Getzen and as public, Ken Etten, Patrick Quinn, Ed Yaeger, Dee Bark Fiske, and Ellyn Kehoe Alderwoman and Chairman. Other persons present, Tara Trent and Louise Rappey.
3. COMMENTS FROM THE PUBLIC: Tara Trent spoke in regard to a sign board indicating community events. Possible location by tennis court on corner of Cook and Geneva, in Maple Park, good spot due to lots of walking and auto traffic. Commissioners suggest Public Works, Badger Shop Teacher, other contact Sign Contractor. Ms Trent the cost of this project will be funded by Maple Park members
4. REPORTS FROM THE GENEVA LAKE AREA MUSEUM and MAPLE PARK MEMBERS: The Museum will have a spookey walk with flashlights on October 13. The stained glass windows from the CRANE ESTATE SHOULD be arriving soon. The native Indian exhibit is being prepared and an extensive mural has been designed and funded by donations. Maple Park owners have arranged for the sign near Dunn Lumber to be prepared for planting. There is a fundraiser for the Museum at the Baker House on October 16.
5. PRESENTATION by Ken Etten, President, Budget to City Council ; amount requested, $ 6,500.
6. INFORMATION provided by Commissioner Yager regarding railroad freight yard.
7. Architectural review regarding 703 Main St, Lake Geneva is pending.
8. Next meeting will be Thursday November 8, 2012, Meeting adjourned @ 7:10 p.m